

Presentation From Officers on the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014

Officers who have been working to ensure that SSDC is ready to implement recent changes in legislation will provide members with a brief presentation giving an overview of the legal framework and outlining steps they have taken to prepare for its introduction. Background papers have been circulated under separate cover.
