M

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

Sales will be made principally by Oliver Dowding. At times he may delegate this to Jane O’Meara. She will be fully briefed of her obligations in complying with all the relevant rules.

Oliver Dowding holds a personal licence. Oliver Dowding will ensure Jane O’Meara, who will occasionally make sales of alcohol is familiar with their obligations at all times, and will only dispense alcohol following full verbal and written instruction from Oliver Dowding.

Should anyone try to buy alcohol who is not fit to be sold it, they won’t be sold it and a note will be made and filed in the onsite Refusals Register.

The alcohol will be stored in the shed. This will be locked at all times except for ingress and egress by Oliver Dowding and authorised staff.

A “Challenge 25” policy will operate at the premises and the premises licence holders shall put measures in place so that the person making deliveries shall also operate this policy.

Full training will be given by the designated premises supervisor (DPS) to anyone involved in the sale of alcohol who doesn’t have a personal licence. This training shall include but is not limited to the “Challenge 25” policy and the offences that can be committed under the licensing act 2003. Such training shall be fully documented and measures put in place so that the records are signed and dated by DPS and the person being trained and the available to authorised officers of the responsible authority upon request.

No consumption of alcohol will be allowed on the premises apart from offering people small sample tasters.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

By ensuring only responsible people are allowed in the premises.

Any people who appear irresponsible will not be sold any alcohol, whether on the premises or when delivering to purchasers.

The alcohol storage area (the whole shed) will be locked at all times except for ingress and egress.

A refusals register will be kept on the premises and reviewed weekly by Oliver Dowding as the Designated Premises Supervisor. This will be made available to the Responsible Authorities on request.

c) Public safety

There will be little risk to the public as the only people on the premises will be those who work on the premises or those who come specifically to buy alcohol. The building is set back from the road, and only accessible via a private track.

A fire extinguisher will be on the premises at all times.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

With the only people regularly or occasionally at the premises being the owner and staff, the risks will be minimal.

There are no public rights of way near enough to the shed to cause concern.

The building is hidden from public view on private land.

The building will be locked at all times except for ingress and egress and all that work normally associated with the harvesting and processing of apples, and such tasks as these things require.

e) The protection of children from harm

No under-18's will be allowed on or in the premises except under full adult supervision.

All "young" buyers will be asked for ID to prove their age.

There is a "Challenge 25" notice in a prominent place.

The building, when nobody is working in it, will be locked at all times.

When delivering alcohol, care will be made to only leave it with responsible people, again operating Challenge 25 where appropriate.

  14. This is the address which we shall use to correspond with you about this application.
- 15. Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or

- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
