

Please TICK one box to indicate your view.

Aims (benefits) of the Langport Community Office (2004)	This aim has been achieved and should be retained for the LCO.	This aim has been partially met, and is still important for the LCO.	This aim has been met, but should be reviewed for the future	This aim has not been met, - activities should be developed to support it	This aim has not been met and should be excluded
To provide a focal point for the regeneration of the area		2	1
To provide a permanent location for the Langport Tourist Information Centre	3
To provide an inclusive community and business support office that can be used as a drop-in information centre				3
To provide local office facilities for business advice services, including a local business / enterprise champion that can provide on-site and outreach advice to businesses in the area and establish co-operative strategies and local marketing				3
To provide a retail outlet exclusively for local producers of non-perishable goods e.g., pottery, paintings, willow crafts, baskets, bottled cider.		1		2
Activities and services to be provided	Achieved and should continue	Partially achieved – should be further developed	Achieved but should be reviewed for future	Not achieved but should be provided in the future	Not achieved and should not be provided
A permanent office base for the Langport Area Forum (now LADT);	1		2
Staff whose objectives involve the overall regeneration of the area including social, economic and physical development	?			1	1
An outreach service to parishes particularly to support the Vital Villages initiative;	?			2
An information centre where business people,		3

Aims (benefits) of the Langport Community Office (2004)	This aim has been achieved and should be retained for the LCO.	This aim has been partially met, and is still important for the LCO.	This aim has been met, but should be reviewed for the future	This aim has not been met, - activities should be developed to support it	This aim has not been met and should be excluded
visitors to the area and locals can find out more information relevant to their individual needs
An accessible and dedicated Tourist Information Centre, open seven days per week in season;	1	2
Facilities for training, recruitment and business support;				1	2
A retail facility of non-perishable goods from suppliers to farmers markets, to enable continuity of supply on days when the market is not operating;				2	1
A 'shop window' for the local craft industry, where goods made locally can be displayed to promote local businesses. In addition, there is an opportunity to earn commissions from items sold;				3
Activities and services to be provided	Achieved and should continue	Partially achieved – should be further developed	Achieved but should be reviewed for future	Not achieved but should be provided in the future	Not achieved and should not be provided
Regular visits by Citizens Advice Bureau;	1			1	1
Updated information on employment opportunities locally by creating links with the Employment Service;				2	1
A 'neutral' base from which to operate the Langport Business Association;				2	1
South Somerset District Council community advisors will be invited to have a presence in the new facility;				3
The Levels and Moors Partnership (LAMP) have expressed an interest in using the proposed facility to raise awareness of their work		1			2
Somerset Food Links are currently looking for an office site. The preferred location should be large enough to house both organisations	?				2