

Scrutiny Committee – 5th January 2010

8. Working in Partnership

A report on working in partnership with East Devon District Council, to develop a joint strategy designed to deliver maximum savings from joining up management arrangements with East Devon District council was considered at Full Council on 10 December 2009. Mark Williams the CEO at East Devon District Council, our prospective partner in the shared services initiative will present why he thinks the partnering arrangement is a good thing for both councils.
